

Natural Leadership: Living Life Doggie-Style

Just like the best movies, Camilla speaks a universal language; one that empowers women and men, dog owners and non-owners alike.

—Jan Wahl, Movie Critic, Lecturer
and Entertainment Reporter

The Fabulous Women of Sonoma County would like to acknowledge and recommend Camilla Gray Nelson as a wonderful motivational speaker. Based on her experience with animal training and her passion for life, Camilla has a wonderful way of igniting enthusiasm. She marries her professional skills with her life experience in a fiery and passionate presentation. I love that she empowers women and has fun doing it!

—Krista Gawronski, President
Fabulous Women of Sonoma County

Camilla's presentation was lively, funny, and contained valuable step-by-step directions on how to improve our attendee's individual businesses and how to relate to the clients we encounter. She received the highest marks on our conference evaluation form for her presentation. Camilla is very comfortable in her role as a speaker. Her upbeat personality is sure to delight many different audiences.

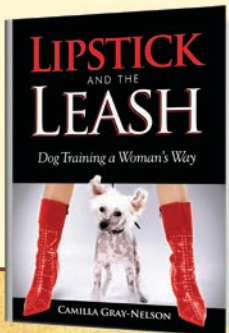

—Denise Collins
Vice President & Conference Director
Intl. Association of Canine Professionals

Camilla Gray-Nelson
The Dog Talk Diva®

Camilla Gray-Nelson is a dog trainer that proudly calls herself a farmer's daughter. Her "natural" approach to communication, leadership and power has launched her to success not only with dogs – but with a wide and varied human clientele as well. She has taken her farm-girl wisdom to the masses, sharing the secrets of power and influence from the animal world with corporate leaders, women, parents and couples alike. So don't be fooled. Camilla is not just another dog trainer! She is President of Dairydell, Inc. and owner of Dairydell Canine, the fastest growing dog-training center in Northern California. As North Bay Business Journal's 2012 Woman Entrepreneur Of The Year, she's an innovator, a powerful communicator and a woman on a mission.

Camilla coaches, cajoles and commands her audience, teaching important life lessons on leadership and personal empowerment in an unlikely way – through the process of dog training. Drawing upon her years of studying animal behavior, Camilla discusses the similarities between dogs and humans and the subtler side of leadership – why bigger and louder isn't better and how universal leadership cues can be applied to all of life's important situations. It's a powerful but pragmatic approach designed to help audiences better achieve their goals – not only with their dogs, but with their staff, their clients, their children and partners alike.

In her presentations, Camilla shares excerpts from her best-selling book, LIPSTICK AND THE LEASH: Dog Training a Woman's Way to encourage audiences to see their dogs in a whole new light: as mentors of empowerment. Camilla's humor, wit and unique message have led media outlets to her door. Her energy, passion and commitment to teaching "natural leadership" make her one of today's most in-demand speakers.

LIPSTICK AND THE LEASH: Dog Training a Woman's Way

74% of households leave dog training to the woman!
LIPSTICK & THE LEASH shows her Nature's way to earn a dog's respect and response - without yelling or bribery.

Contact Camilla for your next event!

Phone: 707-781-6887 Email: cgraynelson@gmail.com www.dogtalkdiva.com

Most Requested Presentations:

Previous Speaking Engagements

American Association of University
Women (AAUW)
Breaking the Milk-Bone Ceiling

National Association of Women
Business Owners (NAWBO)
Ladies, Labs and Leadership

Petaluma Area Chamber of Commerce
(PACC)
Ladies, Labs and Leadership

Fabulous Women of Petaluma
Farm to Fabulous

International Association of Canine
Professionals (IACP)
Hobby to Huge

Sonoma County 4-H Foundation
Farm to Fabulous

...and more

“Ladies, Labs and Leadership”

Why women have a leg up on the competition

Our animal instincts predispose us to respect and follow size and strength. (Read: maleness.) In this entertaining and provocative presentation, Camilla Gray-Nelson — the Dog Talk Diva — reveals the subtler side of power as practiced in the animal world, and points out some natural leadership skills at which women can excel. Learn why heavy-handed management can backfire and how poor posture or unintended gestures can undermine your effectiveness, at home and at the office. Discover how to unleash your Inner Leader — doggie style!

“Managing Your Staff – Doggie Style”

Bringing out that winning performance from your employees

Camilla Gray-Nelson shares her secrets to managing and motivating her staff...with the same techniques she uses in training dogs! She manages a staff of twenty at her facility in California. How does she keep her team happy and motivated? By understanding the profound parallels between four-legged animals and the two-legged variety that work for her! Learn about our own animal instincts, the power of praise, freedom and boundaries, the subtle signals of power and weakness and making the animal group dynamic work for you. Practicing what she preaches, Camilla leads Dairydell, Inc., the fastest-growing dog training facility in Northern California and was named North Bay Business Journal's 2012 Woman Entrepreneur of the Year. This presentation is insightful and inspiring – no bones about it!

“Kids, Men and Dogs: They’re All Animals!”

How learning to manage one can hold clues to managing the others

Are your children out of control? Does your spouse or partner treat you with disrespect? In this entertaining and eye-opening presentation, Camilla Gray-Nelson helps you understand them as the animals they are! Learn what animals look for in their leaders and what characteristics they will respect. Discover three common behaviors that signal weakness to any animal and can cause the two-legged animals in your life to be dismissive of you. Hear why yelling and punishment don't work and how to motivate others instead, by tapping into their most basic animal instincts. Riveting and revealing!

Camilla is AWESOME! Where did she learn to speak people and dog, Bow-Wow!

Contact Camilla for your next event!

Phone: 707-781-6887 Email: cgraynelson@gmail.com www.dogtalkdiva.com